

THE TWELVE HOUSES

Houses represent fields of experience where planetary energies play out on the earthly plane.

Angular Houses-1,4,7,10
Planets in angular houses are felt most strongly. There is an outgoing, initiating energy in angular houses.

Succedent Houses- 2, 5, 8, 11
Planets in succedent houses tend to be steady. They exude less power than planets in angular houses with more of a focus on consolidation.

Cadent Houses- 3, 6, 9, 12
Planets in cadent houses represent a decline of energy. With less power, they tend to be more focused on being than doing.
